do you collect?

See your collection displayed at The Hive in Worcester

Collectors across the county are invited to be part of a once in a life time arts event; 12 Moves at The Hive, a day of live performance, exhibitions, workshops and the first free sneaky peek inside The Hive!

Photographs from collectors across the county will be gathered together for an exciting, creative digital display; The Cabinet of Curious Collectables.

The Collection will gather together the county's most weird and wonderful collections which will be unveiled to the public at The Hive on 24th March 2012.

Submit a photograph of the things you hold near and dear to you and a photo of your collection could appear in The Hive.

Deadline for submissions is Friday 17th February.

A professional photographic shoot will take place for selected collections on Saturday 3rd March in Worcester.
